

R. G. QUINTERO: UNSURPASSED QUALITY, DEPTH, AND BREADTH OF LEARNING EXPERIENCE

CFA® training is not a commodity; there are significant differences in the quality and features of CFA training programs. Your choice of CFA training programs could be a determining factor in whether or not you earn your CFA charter. This is particularly the case for Level I candidates, where CFA Institute data has revealed that less than 1 out of every 5 candidates who fail the Exam ever choose to retake it. Because many candidates achieve scores that are close to the cutoff point for passing, you should leave nothing to chance. Consider the following in criteria in making an informed judgment about CFA prep providers.

Criterion	Consideration(s)
Trainer	Classes are taught by people, not by institutions. The quality of your learning experience depends upon the quality of your instructor. Ron Quintero will be your instructor and CFA mentor. Many of our competitors don't even disclose the instructor; others offer instructors with just a couple of years of CFA training experience. Ron has been one of the most active CFA instructors in the world over the past 20 years. See Ron's bio on the next page or visit www.rgquintero.com for his expanded curriculum vitae.
Schweser discounts	We provide discounts of 25% to 30% on substantially all of the products published by Schweser.
Q-Notes®	These PowerPoint presentations summarize the LOS's, provide representative problems, enhance the in-class experience, and facilitate your review. Many students use the Q-Notes as their primary reviewing tool. Visit www.rgquintero.com to download an excerpt from the Q-Notes.
Small classes; accessible instructor	Large classes are not conducive to learning. We limit our classes to 15 students. Instruction is personalized. You will get to know Ron and your fellow students. Questions are encouraged. Ron is available before and after class, and may be contacted at his office.
Convenience	Midtown classes are at a centrally located training facility between Grand Central Station and the Port Authority (W. 44 th St. between 5 th and 6 th Avenues). Stamford classes are at the Sheraton Stamford Hotel, just a 15-minute walk or 4-minute cab ride from the Stamford train station.
Free make ups	Every session matters. Take advantage at no incremental cost of our entire family of classes to ensure that you attend every session, and feel free to repeat the sessions to achieve mastery.
Free intensive-review	Attend at no incremental cost the 4-day intensive-review program (Level III is 3 days) to make up any sessions that you may have missed, repeat more difficult sessions, and/or have a final review of some or all 18 sessions.
Free online classes	All sessions are available for makeups or review.
Buyer's assurance plan	If you don't pass, you may repeat our program for $295 and receive updated Q-Notes.
No-cost deferral	If you are unable to sit for the Exam, you can roll over your registration to the next Exam period.
Outstanding value	Our all-inclusive fees enable you to receive outstanding instruction, a wide array of program options, small classes, the Q-Notes, free make-up and repeat sessions, deep discounts on the Schweser family of products, and an inexpensive way to repeat the program, if necessary.
Special discounts and referral fees	Corporate and group discounts of $125 if you sign up with a friend or coworker. You can also receive a $100 referral fee, and your colleague a $125 group discount, for each additional member who you enroll in your group. Other discounts include: (1) $100 for Stamford CFA Society members, candidates repeating the Exam, or candidates enrolled in or withdrawing from another CFA review program; (2) $200 for unemployed candidates; and (3) $300 for full-time students.
Financial Reporting and Quant. Analysis Modules	We have special modules for Financial Reporting & Analysis (Accounting) and Quantitative Analysis that are available for candidates whose needs are confined to these areas.
Try before you buy	Attend a class without cost or obligation and learn first-hand what differentiates our classes from others.

- If you are unhappy or have second thoughts about the course you registered in, join ours. We will issue you a $100 credit to defray any costs of withdrawing from another program or taking our class to supplement the program that you are enrolled in.
